Dear Grade 7, 8 and 9 Parents/Guardians,

Final exams are fast approaching. The students and teachers have been working diligently in preparation for these exams. Please read the following information regarding the final exam schedule and daily routines.

Grade 7 & 8

The last day of classes for grade 7 & 8 is on Friday, June 20. After that date, students will only attend school for their scheduled exams. The exams are scheduled for the beginning of the day (8:30 - 10:30). Once students have finished the exam, they are dismissed for the day. Please ensure that proper pick up/walking home plans are arranged.

Grade 9

This year, the grade 9s will be writing their Provincial Achievement Tests (PATs) using Alberta Education's new online test platform. Paper copies of the PATs can be requested in advance for students who regularly require accommodations during tests.

The last day of classes for grade 9 will be Tuesday, June 17. With that being said, the grade 9s have a unique schedule due to the rules set by Alberta Education for the administration of PATs. After the exams on May 29 and June 13, students will attend their regular classes for the remainder of the day*. After the exams on June 18, 19 and 20, the students will be dismissed for the rest of the day. The schedule for the grade 9 PATs follows on the next page.

*Thursday, May 29 9:00 - 11:00. (120 minutes of extra time will be provided if required). Students will attend regular classes the rest of the day after this exam.
